Day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer.

A Proclamation.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WHEREAS, A Joint Committee of both Houses of Congress has waited on the President of the United States, and requested him to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnity, and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of these States, His blessing on their arms and a speedy restoration of peace:

AND WHEREAS, It is fit and becoming in all people at all times, to acknowledge and revere the supreme government of God, to bow in humble submission to his chastisements, to confess and deplore their sins and transgressions in the full conviction that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to pray with all fervency and contrition for the pardon of their past offenses, and for a blessing upon their present and prospective action;

AND WHEREAS, When our beloved country, once, by the blessings of God united prosperous and happy, is now afflicted with faction and civil war, it is peculiarly fit for us to recognize the hand of God in this visitation, and in sorrowful remembrance of our own faults and crimes as a nation and as individuals, to humble ourselves before Him, and to pray for His mercy—to pray that we may be spared further punishment, though justly deserved; that our arms may be blessed and made effectual for the re-establishment of law, order and peace throughout our country, and that the inestimable boon of civil and religious liberty, earned under his guidance and blessing by the labors and sufferings of our fathers, may be restored to all its original excellence;

THEREFORE, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do appoint the last Thursday in September next as a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer for all the people of the nation, and I do earnestly recommend to all the people, and especially to all ministers and teachers of religion, of all denominations, and to all heads of families, to observe and keep that day according to their several creeds and modes of worship, in all humility and with all religious solemnity, to the end that the united prayer of the nation may ascend to the Throne of Grace, and bring down plentiful blessings upon our own country.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the United States to be fixed this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-sixth.

By the President.

ABRAHM LINCOLN.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Sec'ty of State.

Riot Among the Southern Soldiers.

A serious riot occurred recently, at Grand Junction, Tennessee, among the companies of a Louisiana regiment. A correspondent of the Memphis Appeal give the subjoined particulars of the affair:

"About 6 o'clock in the evening, after imbibing freely of 'bust head,' a row was commenced between the Frank Guards and some of the other companies, which resulted in a general fight of about one hour's duration, during which Major York and the Colonel, aided by some of the other officers, used every possible means to quell it, but all to no avail. It seemed to be growing general, when some of the men took shelter in the Percey Hotel, the doors of which were immediately assailed with the butts of muskets, axes, and whatever else could be found to answer the purpose of a battering ram. They soon succeeded in smashing in all the doors, blinds and sash, when they rushed in like a mob of infuriated devils, and commenced an indiscriminate destruction of the hotel furniture and everything they could lay their hands on. Drawers were torn open, the contents were destroyed, the furniture was broken and pitched out, the dining room table was thrown over, and all the table furniture was broken, the chairs smashed to pieces, and such a general wreck you have never witnessed in a civilized community.

About this time the efforts of the officers of the day and the guard proving unavailing to quell the mob, the officers, led by their Colonel, commenced firing upon them, which resulted in the death of two upon the spot, and the mortally wounding of some four or five others, and some 15 were dangerously wounded. There were 14 killed and seriously wounded, besides a large number of others that left on the train who were slightly wounded. The majority of the wounds were from pistol shots; some were bayonet wounds, and broken heads from the clubbed muskets, the men not having any ammunition.

The hotel looked like a hospital after a hard fought battle. The dead and wounded are strewed all over the second floor, and the groans of the wounded are terrible. After destroying the furniture and breaking all that they could in the House, two unsuccessful attempts were made to fire it."

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant, vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery.

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the fourth day of June A. D. Eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per month, and at the same time made, executed and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots number three and four in block number three, in Couch's addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as a security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid, up to the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt; and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the Court this 12th day of August, A. D. 1861.

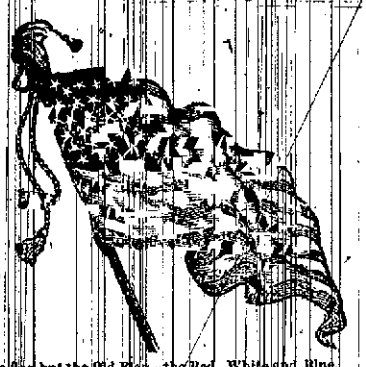
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue. With the stars of a Union unbroken and true! Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave, Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 9, 1861.

Cost of Peace.

While the Disunion papers are howling for peace, the people should be informed of the cost of satisfying the demands of the South. The following are some of them:

"The abandonment of Fortress Monroe; the abandonment of Fort Pickens; the abandonment of Key West; the control of the navigation of the Potomac, the route to the Capital; the possession of the mouths of the Mississippi; thus, the practical control of the Gulf of Mexico, our sea route to California; thus, the loss of all Southern and South-western overland routes to California."

Referring to this subject, the New York Express says:

"There is no democratic journal in the North that we knew of, that advocates these surrenders, in practice, whatever may be their generalizations—or, if there be, and such dared to show their head, it would not receive the support of a corporal's guard of voters."

Very true. Secession papers in Oregon do not fairly come up to their work. They know if they do, they would not have a single supporter whose body and soul was not sold to Disunion.

Old Times and the Present.

We have a file before us of the Essex Register, of 1814, a well-remembered republican paper of that day, published at Salem, Mass. Our country was at that period engaged in a war with Great Britain. A majority of the people of Massachusetts were opposed to that war, were against the Government, and even talked of rebellion and the establishment of "New England" as an independent nation. The Register quotes the following as the spirit of one of the maniacal ravings of the times:

"Men of New England! Arise! Imitate the glorious example shown you by the Hollanders, declare yourselves independent—unchain commerce, dissolve the Union, raise the shout of up England, down America—expel the agents and officers of the General Government."

The Federalists of that day are fairly represented by the Secessionists of ours. They were against the Government, wanted to destroy it, rejoiced when our armies met with reverses, threatened treason, and went just as far as they dared go in treasonable measures without risking their necks; but the war proceeded on—the Government sustained itself with glory—peace was conquered—and the Federal disunion party sunks with a stench, that never will be forgotten—just as will the Secession party of our day.

THE ROAD TO LAFAYETTE.—We can ascertain that we are approaching Portland coming on this road, by its bad condition. It has numerous holes which will be equal to Bunyan's "Slough of Despond," when the fall and winter rains set in. These holes could be easily filled now with earth, and the road made good. Some of the bridges are in a very dangerous condition. We shall hear, we fear, of sad disasters caused by these bridges. A farmer in the country tells us, that himself and neighbors would visit Portland five times where they now do once, for the sale of produce and the purchase of goods, if the roads and bridges were safe. But little time remains the present season to put these roads and bridges in order.

THE FEELING IN KENTUCKY.—Advices from Kentucky received since the election, represent that there has been a great revolution of public sentiment in favor of decidedly aiding the Government to quell the rebellion; and that more Kentuckians will be offered for the war than would have been the quota of that State under the President's Proclamations. It is represented that the popular voice was so decided that many who formerly entertained animosity to the Government have yielded their views, and heartily unite in an effort to make the war as brief as possible.

The State election in California, took place on Wednesday.

Where is our Postal Agent?

The necessities of Oregon imperiously require the presence here, of the Postal Agent for this coast. We always have believed that the appointment of such an officer in California was equivalent to the denial to us of any advantages which we might hope to derive from the presence of such an officer. Our mail routes, in many parts of the State, were established for a past age, and they do not answer the present requirements of the country. Extensive districts of Oregon, where there are numerous settlements, have no mail facilities; other districts, where mails are transported, are so managed that mails are provokingly tardy; and sometimes they are no guarantee of the safety of their contents. We say to our citizens that unless the new mail Agent can visit this State, and to some extent remedy the evils we speak of, they should take measures to secure the appointment of an Agent in the State who will pay some attention to our wants.

STATE FAIR.—The Board of Managers of the State Agricultural Society met at the Fair Grounds, at the mouth of the Clackamas, on Saturday, to make necessary arrangements for the Fair. Though present, we were unable to obtain a copy of the proceedings. These will be officially published by the Corresponding Secretary. The enclosing of the Fair Grounds is in a forward state—with the necessary and extensive halls for the exhibition of articles, and stalls and pens for stock. The members of the Board represent the best feeling abroad for sustaining the Fair. Adequate provision will be made for supplying provisions—lodgings can be had in Oregon City—and excellent camping grounds are provided near the Fair Grounds. The arrangements are made for a Grand State Fair. We were greatly pleased with the spirit exhibited by all present to make the Fair a great success. J. S. Ainsworth, Esq., was appointed Superintendent of the Grounds. He is to act as Chief of Police, and is authorized to lease the privileges of establishing booths and eating houses on the grounds. Address him at the Post-office, Oregon City. Clackamas County is doing her duty in making the most ample preparations for exhibitors and visitors. We anticipate an outpouring of the people of Oregon at the Fair.

☞ The Argus of Saturday throws discredit upon the statement made by J. L. Adams and others that they had found gold upon the Malheur river. It is now said that Adams has never been there, and all the information he has upon the subject is derived from soldiers who have been over the route. The discovery of these truths has induced some to leave the party got up for the Malheur. Many of its members however, have gone forward. We advise our farmers not to give away their farms under the supposition that they can shovel up gold on the Malheur river.

When Webster's Massachusetts regiment was on the way to Washington, a rumor was received that that city was about to be attacked. Col. Webster ordered the engineer to push ahead. The engineer told him that the engine was out of order and he could only go at the rate of five miles an hour. Webster called for some engineers in his regiment; five appeared and declared the engine to be perfect. The engineer was arrested, another substituted, and away went the train at the rate of thirty miles an hour.

A Washington letter says that Montgomery Blair called on Gen. McClellan to make inquiries. He was answered: "Gen. Scott and myself will be responsible for the campaign, and we shall conduct it according to our best judgment."

Secretary Welles expresses himself in favor of closing Southern ports by proclamation at once. We have the highest authority for saying that not one Government in Europe has remonstrated against closing the rebel ports.

A correspondent says that the immigration by the plains this year will be between thirty and forty thousand, mostly from Indiana, Illinois and Iowa.

It is said that Sykes, late Indian Agent, was appointed by the late Albany Convention, to represent Oregon in the Confederate Congress, if he should consider it expedient to do so.

It is understood that North Carolina troops, near Washington, have been called home, to guard against negro insurrections.

It is stated in the Sacramento Union, that a plot had been discovered, to blow up the powder magazine on Mare Island.

Cradlebaugh, the Union candidate, has been elected delegate to Congress, for Nevada Territory.

BY TELEGRAPH!

[Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.]

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

ST. LOUIS DATES TO AUGUST 27th.

VEREKA, Sept. 3, 1861.

The Pony Express arrived at Grubswell Station, 160 miles east of Fort Churchill, yesterday, bringing dates from St. Louis to August 27th. The following is from the Sacramento Union Extra:

ST. LOUIS, via Ft Kearney, August 26, P. M.

The Pony Express have made their starting point from Station 110 west of this city. Letters will probably go by stage to and from that point.

The Evansville and Paducah mails were seized by the rebels on the 22d, and taken up the Tennessee River. They had a cargo valued at $20,000.

4,000 rebels are reported at Benton, Mo., fortifying the place.

It is rumored that the New York Daily News and Day Book are to be suppressed immediately by order of the Government; it being said that they received assistance from Southern sympathizers, who freely circulate them.

Orders are issued by the Adjutant General that all recruits must be enlisted for three years.

It is intimated that Gen. Scott will not longer allow Kentucky to occupy a neutral position.

It is reported that Jeff. Davis has approved of the act appointing two other Commissioners to Europe. Also the act for the aid of Missouri in repelling invasion, and authorizing her admission into the Confederation.

The Confederate Congress is reported to have received dispatches by telegraph, stating that the English Government has sent orders to Admiral Miller of the gulf squadron to see that British merchant vessels be adequately protected in the ingress and egress to and from the ports of the South. The officials at Richmond believe much of it to be a fact.

The French Consul at Richmond has received dispatches announcing the arrival of several French war vessels at Norfolk, and reported martial law to be declared at Nashville on the 23d.

The name of Capt. Fobles of the Royal Dutch Navy, bearer of dispatches to the Government, is registered among the arrivals at Willard's Hotel at Washington.

W. H. Russell, correspondent of the London Times, applied to the Provost Martial for a passport across the Potomac and was flatly refused.

The continued improvement of the Federal troops is the chief subject of congratulation.

Baltimore papers have agreed to comply with the request of Gen. Dix to refrain from publishing news which will aid the enemy.

ST. JOSEPH, August 27th, 9 A. M.—The Potomac Investigation Committee, at Washington, reports 200 spies in the department who cannot be depended upon as loyal. Several women have been arrested at Washington and others placed under surveillance, for giving comfort to the rebels.

Major Barrett's first regiment was not accepted for refusal to take the oath of allegiance, and for other good and sufficient causes.

In consequence of the President's proclamation, Adams & Co. have issued orders to all their offices to refuse to receive letters from the Confederate States.

The Postmaster General has issued the following order: Officials and agents of the Post Office Department will, without further instruction, lose no time in putting an end to written intercourse with those States by causing the arrest of any Express Agent or other person who shall after this order receive letters for transmission to and from said States, and will seize such letters and forward them to this Department. (Signed,) WM. BLAIR, P. M. Gen.

The State Department issued an explanatory note in relation to passports, and was principally intended to check the communication of disloyal persons in Europe. Passports are not required of ordinary travelers on the lines of railroads of the United States entering British possessions, unless any special case of suspected persons be objected to by an agent of the government on the border, the agent then will cause such person to be detained until a communication has been made to this Department in regard to the case. (Signed,) W. H. SEWARD.

The Government has reliable information of a quarrel which has broken out among the leading traitors of the Southern Confederacy, which promises to be disastrous. The belligerents are Toombs and Virginians and North Carolinians, on one side, and Davis, Wigfall, and the South Carolinians on the other.

Attorney-General declares that Major Barrett must take the oath of allegiance.

The following programme from Washington, if carried out, will act as an effectual suppression of the newspapers named:

P. O. DEPARTMENT, Aug. 22.—TO THE P. M. of New York—The Postmaster-General dictates that from and after the receipt of this that none of the newspapers published in New York City that were presented by the Grand Jury as dangerous from disloyalty, shall be forwarded in the mails.

(Signed) T. B. PRATT, Chief Clerk.

Gov. Gamble issued a proclamation calling for 42,000 of the militia of the State to serve for six months, unless peace is sooner declared in the State.

We still doubt the reported massacre of emigrants, at Goose Lake.

A WILLING OLD SOUL.—The following anecdote is going the rounds of the press: "An elderly lady, who attended a meeting of the First Vermont Regiment, was full of enthusiasm, and said she thanked God that she was able to do something for her country; her two sons, all she possessed in the world, were in the regiment, and the only thing she had to regret was that she had not known it twenty years ago—she would have furnished more."

CITY.

TO MERCHANTS AND ADVERTISERS.

Merchants and advertisers generally are invited to call and examine the circulation of THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN. The space allotted to advertising is limited to six columns, so that no advertisement can be lost in the paper

COMMON COUNCIL.—Council met Friday evening, Sept 6, 1861 Present—Messrs Hallock, White, Harbaugh, Masters King, Hull and Scott, Mr King in the Chair

A petition from sundry citizens, praying for the construction of a sewer in the south part of the city, to convey water, which flows from the Public Square over portions of the streets, into the river: read and referred to Committee on streets and public property

Wm. Berry was granted to license to sell liquor in less quantity than a quart.

Mr King offered a resolution donating the Bell-tower on the levee to Drs Hawthorne & Loryea. resolution 1st.

The City Collector's report for the month of August, was referred to Committee on Finance

A resolution requesting the Finance Committee to report on the probable amount of revenue for the ensuing year, was adopted.

Mr White offered a resolution to construct a culvert at the corner of C and 4th streets; referred to Committee on Fire and Water

The following bills were ordered paid: Seymour & Boynt, $160; Remington & Clark, $25 66, Jas Clinton $21 Bills referred: E L Pittock, $69 50; Geo L Curry, $14

A resolution to pay Jas W Going for services rendered as Assessor, was laid over under rule. Adjourned.

PUBLIC MEETING ON SATURDAY EVENING.—There was a large gathering of citizens on Saturday evening to hear an address from Senator Nesmith. Mr Nesmith, Mr Logan Mr Farrar and Mr. Holman addressed the meeting. Everything passed off satisfactorily We have a report of the proceedings, which we shall give to morrow morning

FIRE.—The alarm of fire on Saturday night last was caused by the burning of an unoccupied log house on third street, owned by W H Burke. It was no doubt the work of an incendiary.

LOOKING FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The bark Jane A. Falkinburg is loading with quartermaster's stores at Fort Vancouver, destined to San Francisco.

IN TOWN.—Gov Whiteaker arrived on Saturday evening.

More of the Arrest of Ex-Minister Faulkner.

Washington correspondence of the N Y. Herald says:

"The arrest of Charles J Faulkner, ex-Minister to France, for treason, was effected here on the 12th August, by a detachment of the Provost Guard, who for that purpose repaired to his hotel. He was conveyed to the jail, under orders from the military authorities through the War Department He is not permitted to hold correspondence or converse with any of his friends at present As to the specific charges under which he is held, they are, so far as the public is concerned, mere matters of speculation; but something has been said about his having a commission as Brigadier-General in the rebel army A formal examination into the case will, however, soon take place. His treason, it is alleged, was chiefly perpetrated in France while he was holding a commission under the United States. He aided agents of the rebels sent to purchase arms, and used his influence with the leading statesmen of France to have the French Government recognize the treasonable Confederacy of Jeff. Davis There is considerable rejoicing in Washington that the Government has exhibited sufficient backbone to do a good thing. Shortly after his arrest he remarked that he was not aware of having done anything to justify these proceedings, and but for them he would have his accounts settled to-day at the State Department, which he visited the day after his arrival at Washington on that business, as well as to call on Secretary Seward, in accordance with the courtesy governing ministers returning from abroad.

It is said that a correspondence has been found among ex Minister Faulkner papers, showing a collusion between him and certain members of the present Union Government, and that among the things laid down in the programme was the meeting held in Baltimore the other evening, by Breckinridge and Vallandingham I learn that the strongest testimony exists that Mr. Faulkner was active, while Minister of the United States in France in giving aid and comfort to the rebels by purchasing arms and also that he commanded a regiment of rebel troops on his return."

EMIGRANTS.—A correspondent of the Sacramento Union, writing from Nevada, says:

"The overland emigrants are passing here at the rate of 50 and 75 wagons a day, and report thousands behind. The majority appear to be from Missouri Many are from Kentucky."

Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs A M Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Dull Pain Biliousness Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath &c, and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. We regard this the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females such as Leucorrhœa or Whites, Weakness &c Sold by all Druggists and by DANIEL SWETT Proprietor, 65 California street San Francisco aug28dm

The Medical and Surgical Institute of D L J CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor far above the assault of envy and professional malice In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in the department of medical science, and they occupy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr Czapkay has fully established him in this country as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with the Diploma and the honorary titular degree Selecting this as his field of operation although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army for more extended labors, Dr L J Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States. An extensive portrait and biography are published in another column of this paper Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence please enclose $10 in their letters and they will get immediate attention in their cases.
